ACCA offers on-demand computer-based exams (ODCBE) for the first seven exams within the Foundations in Accountancy suite of awards and AB, MA, FA and LW from the ACCA Qualification.

HOW DOES IT WORK?
The exams are conducted at centres which are licensed by ACCA.

Centres register students for the computer-based exams via ACCA’s online administration system. They download exams for each student, the exams are then set offline, and results uploaded to the ACCA server upon completion of the exams.

If you intend sitting ACCA’s ODCBEs you must, in the first instance, be registered with ACCA. The centre will require the following personal information from you as well as proof that you are a registered and eligible student:

- your ACCA student registration number
- date of birth (in day, month, year format)
- full name and address
- the qualification for which you are studying
- email address
- telephone number
- gender.

This information will be used only for the purposes of registering you as a student for the exams and informing ACCA of your exam results. The centre is required to inform you of the use of these personal details and the purpose for which the information will be used under the terms of the UK Data Protection Act.

You should also be aware that ACCA is entitled to provide such information to the centre as it requires to do so from time to time. ACCA shall do so solely for the purposes of the administration of the exams and such information may be passed to a centre in a country where no Data Protection Rights exist.

To prove you are registered and eligible to sit the requested ODCBEs, you will be required to provide your registration number, date of birth and contact details to the centre. You must also provide a valid, and official, form of photographic identification (e.g., passport). Failure to provide an official form of photographic identification will mean you cannot be booked in for an ODCBE session.

The ODCBE centre will also require you to pay a fee directly to them to cover the administration, invigilation, and exam fee costs.

It may be possible for special arrangements to be made during exams for students who have a long term or permanent disability, indisposition, are visually impaired or who have a specific learning difficulty that might affect their exams. If you require such support, please notify the exams department by raising a request on the Additional Support Portal (access via the Disability Support link on the MyACCA page) at least three weeks in advance of your exam session. To allow us to fully consider your request, supporting documentary medical evidence must also be submitted. You should also contact the ODCBE centre’s examinations co-ordinator ahead of the exam session to make them aware of any adjustments which have been approved by ACCA.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?
Once the centre has registered you for the exam you will be given a time and date for the exam by the centre’s examination co-ordinator. On the day of the exam, you will be provided with a workstation where you will attempt the exam. Workstations have to conform to standards and specifications laid down by ACCA. These have to be quietly situated, with individual PCs separated from other students, free from glare and conform to current health and safety requirements. An invigilator will be on hand to assist you with any queries you may have at the time of sitting the exam.

WHAT ABOUT THE EXAM ITSELF?
For all exams you will be given:

- paper to do your rough workings
- on-screen instructions showing you how to navigate through the exam screens.

If you are sitting FMA/MA, Management Accounting you will be provided with a formulae sheet, present value table and annuity table on screen.

Prior to the exam start time the invigilator will read instructions to you. You will then be required to start the exam software which will prompt you to input your ACCA registration number and date of birth, to provide access to your exam. The invigilator will check the details on screen, your identity against your photographic ID and will ensure that you have been assigned the correct exam. You will then be permitted to start the exam.

ODCBE QUESTION TYPES
The types of questions contained in the exams are:

- Multiple choice – where you are required to choose one answer from a list of options by clicking on the appropriate ‘radio button’.
- Multiple response – where you are required to select more than one response from the options provided by clicking the appropriate tick boxes.
- Multiple response matching – where you are required to select a response to a number of related statements by clicking on the ‘radio button’ which corresponds to the appropriate response for each statement.
- Number entry – where you are required to key in a numerical response to the question.

The Introductory and Intermediate Certificate in Financial and Management Accounting exams FA1, MA1, FA2 and MA2 exams will contain the Objective Test (OT) questions listed above – all two marks.

Where an exam is suspended, cancelled or otherwise nullified by ACCA (the examining board), it shall apply its compensation policy as follows:

If an examination paper(s) attempt is suspended, cancelled or otherwise nullified by the examining board (at any stage, whether before or after the examination sitting itself) ACCA will waive the fee (or part of it) for the next attempt at the paper(s) unless such suspension, cancellation or otherwise is caused by an epidemic, pandemic or any other event against which ACCA is unable to obtain insurance on reasonable commercial terms. Due to the nature and complexity of operating professional examinations, ACCA reserves the right not to reschedule any examination or offer any compensation other than as specified above.
